Subject: Request for Permission to CONDUCT NSS PRE CAMP AT CPA COLLEGE OF GLOBA STUDIES

Sir,

The NSS Unit of our college respectfully requests permission to conduct a 7 Days
NSS Special Camp titled “UNARVU” at GLP School, Kanmanam from 24th
December to 30th December.

The proposed special camp aims to inculcate social responsibility, leadership qualities, and community service among the NSS volunteers. Various activities such as cleanliness drives, awareness programmes, personality development sessions, cultural activities, and community interaction programmes are planned as part of the camp. These activities are intended to promote social awareness and holistic development of the volunteers as well as to contribute positively to the local community.

We kindly seek your approval and support to ensure the active participation of NSS volunteers and the smooth conduct of the above-mentioned special camp.

We look forward to your valuable support and kind approval.

Yours sincerely,
Aboobacker.K.

PROGRAMME REPORT

Title of the Programme : UNARV NSS 7 DAYS SPECIAL CAMP

Date: 24TH June 2025

Name of the Programme officer: Aboobacker .K

Objective of the Programme:

- To develop social responsibility and civic sense among NSS volunteers.
- To inculcate leadership qualities, teamwork, and discipline.
- To promote community service and awareness through various social activities.
- To provide practical exposure to volunteers in organizing and implementing community-based programmes.
- To strengthen the bond between the institution and the local community.

Name of the Resource Person:

The NSS Unit of CPA College of Global Studies conducted a 7 Days NSS Special Camp titled “UNARVU” at GLP School, Kanmanam from 24th to 30th December 2025 with the objective of promoting social responsibility, leadership qualities, discipline, and community engagement among NSS volunteers.

The camp commenced on 24th December with the registration of volunteers at 2:00 PM, followed by the inaugural function at 2:30 PM, which was inaugurated by Sri. John Joseph, Principal, CPA College of Global Studies. A Vilambara Rally was organized to create awareness among the public regarding the objectives of the special camp. Volunteers actively participated in camp arrangements, and the day concluded with a Christmas celebration that promoted unity and cultural harmony.

On 25th December, a Fire Force awareness class was conducted to educate volunteers on fire safety, disaster management, and emergency response. This was followed by a community survey aimed at identifying social issues within the locality. In the evening, a drama programme was organized to convey social messages and raise awareness among the public.

The third day of the camp featured a MILES workshop focusing on skill development and motivation among volunteers. A product selling programme was also conducted to enhance entrepreneurial skills and teamwork. The day concluded with a Sayahnam programme, which encouraged interaction and engagement with the local community.

On 27th December, volunteers organized a cleaning programme to promote hygiene and environmental awareness. In the afternoon, a Self Defence class was conducted by Sri. Jasir T , National Level Boxing Champion, which empowered volunteers with self-protection techniques and increased their confidence.

The fifth day of the camp included a health camp that provided basic health check-ups and health awareness to the local community. This was followed by an awareness class by Ajwad, which emphasized personal development, positive attitude, and social responsibility.

On 29th December, a Krishi programme was conducted to highlight the importance of agriculture and sustainable farming practices. Later, the Anti-Drug Cell inauguration was held in association with Asaad Sena, with the objective of creating awareness about the harmful effects of drug abuse. The day concluded with a healing class and music session by Yasir, which contributed to mental relaxation and emotional well-being of the volunteers.

The final day of the camp was devoted to camp re-arrangement and conclusion activities. The camp was successfully completed with the active participation of NSS volunteers, effective coordination by the Programme Officer, and positive cooperation from the local community, thereby fulfilling the objectives of the programme.
