Subject: Request for Permission to Conduct a Palliative Care Day Fund Collection

Sir,

The NSS Unit 272 of our college kindly requests permission to conduct a Palliative Care Day Fund Collection on 10th, 11th, and 15th January 2026, as part of NSS activities in connection with Palliative Care Day.

The fund collection on 10th and 11th January 2026 will be conducted in association with Santhi Pain and Palliative Care Center, Puthanathani, and the fund collection on 15th January 2026 will be conducted in association with Energy Care Palliative and Physiotherapy Center, Parakkal.

The objective of this activity is to support palliative care services and to create awareness among students and the public about the importance of compassionate care for chronically ill and bedridden patients. The programme will be carried out by NSS volunteers in a disciplined and responsible manner, strictly adhering to NSS guidelines.

We assure you that the fund collection will be conducted systematically, transparently, and under proper supervision.

We humbly request your kind approval and support to conduct the above activity successfully.

Yours sincerely,

Aboobacker K

PROGRAMME REPORT

Title of the Programme : Palliative Care Day Fund Collection

Date: 15th January 2026

Time: 8 : 30 AM

Name of the Co-Ordinator: Aboobacker K

Objective of the Programme:

- To support palliative care services through fund collection.
- To create awareness among students and the public about the importance of palliative care.
- To promote social responsibility and compassion among NSS volunteers.

The NSS Unit 272 of CPA College of Global Studies, Puthanathani, organized a Palliative Care Day Fund Collection on 10th, 11th, and 15th January 2026, as part of Palliative Care Day, in collaboration with recognized palliative care institutions.

The fund collection conducted on 10th and 11th January 2026 was carried out in association with Santhi Pain and Palliative Care Center, Puthanathani, while the fund collection on 15th January 2026 was organized in association with Energy Care Palliative and Physiotherapy Center, Parakkal.

NSS volunteers were divided into groups and participated actively in the programme. They approached the public in a respectful manner and explained the objectives of palliative care, emphasizing the importance of community involvement in supporting patients suffering from chronic and life-limiting illnesses. The volunteers also helped spread awareness about compassionate care, pain management, and the role of palliative care centers in improving the quality of life of patients and their families.

The programme helped enhance the social awareness, empathy, and sense of responsibility among NSS volunteers. It also provided them with valuable real-life exposure to community-oriented service activities. The fund collection received a positive response from the public, reflecting strong community support for palliative care initiatives.

The Palliative Care Day Fund Collection programme was successfully completed with the cooperation of the public and the associated palliative care centers, and it served as a meaningful and impactful activity under NSS.
