The Arabic language is a pillar of the cultural diversity of humanity. It is one of the most widely spoken languages in the world, used daily by more than 290 million people. World Arabic Language Day is celebrated every year on 18 December since 2012. The date coincides with the day in 1973 that the General Assembly of the United Nations adopted Arabic as the sixth official language of the Organization. While it poses its share of threats to multilingualism, artificial intelligence is also a formidable source of opportunities and promise. With the development of instantaneous translation tools, it could facilitate dialogue between peoples and cultures. With improved and personalized teaching, it could also greatly facilitate the learning of several languages and thus promote the development of the Arabic language. Which help them to achieve high levels of the fluency in Arabic. Also engage the students critically in Arabic world. Department of Arabic conducted an Arabic Calligraphy Competition, Arabic Status making competition, Arabic song Competition, Arabic poem recitation competition, Arabic poster making competition, Qur'an recitation competition as the part of International Arabic Day Celebration for the students. The following Departments are the winners:

1. Department of Zoology
2. Department of Commerce
3. Department of Psychology
