PALLIATIVE CARE AND SOCIAL WORK CLUB

1. Trauma & Palliative club inauguration

Trauma & palliative club of CPA College was officially inaugurated by Prof. Jaleel, honourable minister for local administration & higher education on October 24th on the occasion of college union inauguration. Honourable minister talked about the importance of palliative clubs in each and every college to be a helping hand for the poor and needy and to nourish the helping mentality among students. He appreciated the previous programs conducted by trauma & palliative, particularly the house cleaning process during the floods in Kerala. College Chairman Mr. Abdurahman haji also spoke about palliative care activities. Honourable minister and chairman honoured volunteers and staff participated in the cleaning program by giving mementoes.

2. Cleaning Of the Flood Affected Home

The palliative volunteers of CPA arts and science college Puthanathani have done many charities for the flood victims of 2018. On August 18, Thirunnavaya Navamukundha School was the rehabilitation camp and it was crowded with flood affected people. When the flood was over the affected houses and premises are dumped with mud and there were Venomous snakes and other creatures. For making the houses usable again the 45 volunteers of CPA College and their teachers worked hard. The management supported them with vehicles, generators and fuel. The volunteers were in their pursuit from 6:30 am to 5 pm by splitting the mission into two groups for working in 14, 15th wards of the villages on the date 20th August

3. Food kit distribution

As a part of world day, October 16th trauma & palliative club conducted food kit distribution programme. Students prepared the food from their own homes and distributed almost 60 food kits among the poor and needy such as hospital patients, beggars, travelers etc all around tirur region.

4. Road Cleaning

Puthanathani: on November 1st (karala piravi day) the students under pain & palliative club of CPA college cleaned the kuttikalathani-thuvakkad area. large bushes and plants were grown from both sides of the road, which was difficult for the people there. large quantity of waste was also dumped on the road side and foul smell made the journey through that area difficult.

5. Medicine collection

As a part of palliative day January 15th CPA College pain & palliative unit also put their own mark. Trauma & palliative unit in collaboration with 'shanthi' palliative care unit, conducted a medicine collection drive. Different types of unused medicines were collected from the students. The collected medicines were handed over by smt. Bindu, Head of the Department of Management studies to the coordinators of 'shanthi' palliative care unit, and it would be distributed among the needy under 'shanthi'. The programme went really well with the participation of Wholehearted students as well as teaching and non teaching staffs.

6. Fund Collection

In collaboration with the Shanthi palliative unit, CPA College trauma & palliative club volunteers collected almost Rs 10000, mainly from mosque entrances. Later it was handed over to shanthi.

7. Helping hands to the needy

When the flood swept out Kerala, many houses were very badly affected. People could not go for their earnings for many days as every field of job was broken. so we thought it is our duty to serve the people as much as we can. Thus we, the palliative volunteers collected a good amount of money from the students and bought food items and it was divided into about 100 food kits. our prime objective was to handover the food kits to the neediest. We set out as a team of 60 volunteers to the tribal villages of Wayanad, among the poor in those areas. all kinds of financial assistances were provided by college management including travel, food. it was an eye-opening moment for the palliative volunteers

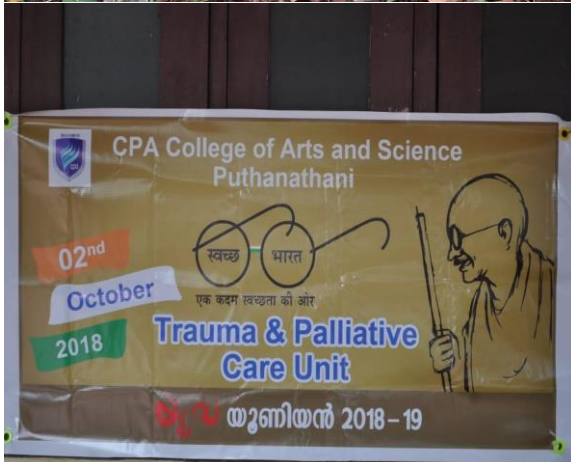

8. Hospital cleaning

Regarding the SWACHABHARATH DAY on October 2nd the palliative members of CPA College of Arts and Science students cleaned the surroundings of Valavannoor Ayurveda Hospital. Students and teachers took the initiative to help clean the hospital and they made a useful environment.

This group includes 45 students and guiding teachers Rasitha Kavungal, Aliga Rose Mony, Ajisha Abdul Azeez, Muhammed Jabir and lab assistant Muhammed Razak. The inauguration function took place at 10:00 am in front of the hospital. The hospital superintendent Mr Bijoy had a major role in the function. The college manager Mr. T Ubaidulla held the presidential address. The panchayath President Ms Sakkeena Pulpadan inaugurated the function.

PG DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE (FINANCE)

“KAITHAANG”

VISITS, SUPPORTS AND EMBRACE OF MARGINALISED

The extension activity "Kaithaang" was organized by the PG Department of Commerce (Finance) of CPA College of Global studies, Puthanathani, with the aim of providing support, both financial and emotional, to the elderly residents of old age homes and orphanages.

The program was firstly inaugurated by visiting old age home on 13/07/ 2018 at Thavanoor, Malappuram district, by staff and final year students and also visited Shanthi Bhavan Orphanage at Randathani Poovanchina on 14/07/2018 by the staff and second year students.

The students shared the experiences of the inmates, consoled them and offered them fruits and sweets and most importantly gave vent to the feelings of the old which made many outbursts their emotions. The students entertained them by singing songs. In order to provide some laughter in their lives, the students performed a small humorous skit on daily issues. This brought cheer on their wrinkled faces

The overarching goal was to alleviate feelings of marginalization and neglect among these vulnerable populations by offering companionship and assistance.

Program Objectives:

1. To extend financial support to the management of old age homes and orphanages for the provision of essential services.
2. To provide emotional support and companionship to the elderly residents and orphaned children.
3. To assess the needs of the residents and offer assistance accordingly to enhance their quality of life.
4. To foster a sense of community engagement and social responsibility among faculty members and students.

Program Activities:

1. Visit to Old Age Homes and Orphanages: Faculty members and students visited the Old Age Home at Thavanoor and Shanthi Bhavan Orphanage at Randathani Poovanchina to interact with the residents and understand their needs.
2. Financial Assistance: Support was extended to the management of these facilities to aid in the provision of essential services such as food, medical care, and accommodation.
3. Emotional Support: Volunteers engaged in meaningful conversations, played games, and organized recreational activities to provide companionship and alleviate loneliness among the residents.
4. Distribution of Essential Items: Essential items including clothing, toiletries, and personal care products were distributed among the residents to address immediate needs.

- 5. Health Check-up Camps: Health check-up camps were organized in collaboration with healthcare professionals to assess the health status of the residents and provide necessary medical attention.

This kaithaang program is not a single one step , but a beginning .

The p[rogram was very influential and motivative, especially it created a sort of social commitment in students and created a social service mentality among students.
