AUDIO VISUAL CLUB AND TOURISM CLUB ORGANIZED FILM FEST

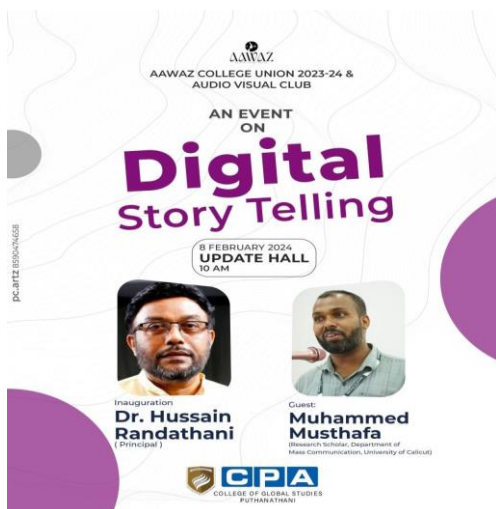

On September 26, 2023, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm, CPA College of Global studies in Puthanathani hosted a special event. It was a collaboration between the Audio Visual Club and the Tourism Club. Together, they organized a Film Festival, where 100 students participated. The event was a hit among the students. They enjoyed watching movies and thought it was a good program. Two popular movies shown were "Neelakasham Pachakadal Chuvanna Bhoomi" and "Life of Pi." Students were impressed by the diverse selection of films and had fun discussing them. Overall, the event brought students together and sparked their interest in filmmaking and cultural exploration.

WORKSHOP ON DIGITAL STORYTELLING

The Audio Visual Club and Awaz College Union collaborated with CPA College of Global Studies, Puthanathani, for a film workshop on digital storytelling. It was held on February 8, 2024, from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm. The workshop was led by Muhammed Musthafa, a research scholar from Calicut University. More than 50 students participated and found the session enjoyable and educational. Musthafa covered various practical aspects of filmmaking, including scriptwriting, camera techniques, and editing. Students actively engaged in hands-on activities, gaining valuable experience in creating digital stories. The workshop provided an excellent opportunity for students to improve their skills and develop an interest in filmmaking.

MOBILE SHORT FILM FEST AWARD CEREMONY

The Mobile Short Film Award Ceremony, held on February 27, 2024, at CPA College of Global Studies, Puthanathani, was a resounding success. The event was graced by the presence of two esteemed personalities: Muhasin, a renowned Malayalam film director known for his work in 'Kadina Kadoram Anakadaham,' and Nasarullah, an assistant professor at Safi Institute of Studies, who is also recognized as a Malayalam film actor and author. The ceremony witnessed enthusiastic participation from numerous students, showcasing their talent and creativity in the realm of mobile short filmmaking. Dr. Hussain Randathani, the college principal, inaugurated the event, setting the stage for a celebration of cinematic excellence. Among the highlights of the ceremony were the awards presented to the winners. Sreejith, a fourth-semester psychology student, clinched the first prize for his film 'THTHA,' while Razeen Kahaleel, a second-semester English student, secured the second prize for 'SILEO.' Sahil VP, a fourth-semester BTTM student, earned the third prize for his remarkable contribution. In addition to the top honors, several students were recognized for their outstanding achievements in various categories. Sreejith, the winner of the first prize, also received accolades for Best Director, Best Performance, and Best Script. Sahil, showcasing his editing prowess, was awarded the Best Editing prize, while Suhail, a fourth-semester BCom student, impressed with his cinematography skills, earning the title of Best Cinematography. Special mentions were also extended to Razeen Kahaleel and Ashiq for their exceptional contributions, adding further depth to the talent pool showcased at the event. The success of the program was a testament to the collaborative efforts of the Audio Visual Club and Awaz College Union, who worked tirelessly to ensure its smooth execution. In conclusion, the Mobile Short Film Award Ceremony was not only a platform for students to exhibit their creativity but also a celebration of their passion for filmmaking. It served as a reminder of the immense talent present within the college community and the boundless potential for innovation and excellence in the field of mobile short filmmaking.
